Calling all K-12 teachers in Pennsylvania

Do your students:

- learn by doing?
- explore experiential learning environments?
- create as well as consume knowledge?
- immersive themselves in digital age learning?

If yes, then showcase their talents while demonstrating the value of technology in the classroom at the

Pennsylvania Educational Technology Expo and Conference - PETE & C

The Details

The Invitation:

- Students in grades K-12 are invited to demonstrate the use of technology in projects they have created that support learning in Pennsylvania's classrooms. Individual students as well as teams of up to four students are eligible to apply.
- Students must be accompanied and supervised by a faculty advisor at all times during the conference.
- Apply online at http://www.peteandc.org from November 3 to December 19, 2014. Deadline to apply is Friday, December 19, 2014. Notification of acceptance will be sent by December 23, 2014.
- For more information, visit http://www.peteandc.org. To register, click the Student Showcase link on the left.

The Student Showcase:

- Selected teams will display their projects from 9:45 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. or 12:30 p.m. - 2:45 p.m. on February 10th during the conference. When teams receive their notice of acceptance, they will also be assigned a showcase time.
- PETE & C will supply each team with a three-foot table space and electrical connections. Please note: Wireless Internet connections will be available in the Student Showcase area.
- Schools must provide all computer and peripheral equipment. All equipment must fit within the assigned space. A description of the project creation process should be included with the display.

The Free Stuff:

- All students will receive a T-shirt, lunch, exhibit hall pass and other goodies. Faculty advisors will receive free conference registration on February 10th and may attend that day's sessions. Faculty advisors will also be provided lunch and exhibit hall passes.

The Expense:

- A travel allowance is available to offset travel expenses for all participating schools. A limited number of hotel rooms are available for schools traveling over 100 miles. These rooms will be paid for by PETE & C and are available on a first-come, first-served basis.
